His Mother Has Taken Charge of His Defense.

NEW YORK, July 16 .- The fact that Harry Thaw was placed in an insane asylum in London seven years ago is known to District Attorney Jerome. At that time this method was taken to save him from a public trial. He was put away in a sanitarium, and after being there a short time was permitted to leave on the assurance of his people that he would be brought to the United States and kept here.

Immediately following her interview with her son, Harry K. Thaw, in the Tombs today, Mrs. William Thaw as sumed full charge of the defense and arranged to retain the services as counsel of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonynge, who were dismissed by young Thaw a few days ago. This action is taken to mean that Harry Thaw's desires and opinions regarding the defense will be ignored and reliance will be The Promotion Committee ex- placed upon the plea of insanity, insistence upon which by Olcott resulted in the rupture between himself and his

The meeting between Mrs. Thaw and her son in the Tombs was an affecting one. After the first greeting they were the bars of the cell for half an hour. During the interview the prisoner's wife stood in silence in the corridor a few feet away from the cell door, awaiting her turn to speak with her husband, No words were exchanged between Mrs.

Mrs. Thaw was met at the prison door by the warden, who told her in an apolthat all visitors must be searched. She retired to the room of the Tombs matron, where the rule was complied with. On Mrs. Thaw's arrival at the cell she might sit during the interview. The Keeper John Smith saw that she was somewhat feeble and opened the door of Thaw's cell to get a stool on which

The mother stepped out of the cell, while Smith shut the door and turned the key once more on Thaw.

A small stool was placed in front of the cell and Mrs. Thaw seated herself and continued talking to her son for a half hour. She then kissed him through the iron bars and was taken downstairs, where she was joined by Josiah Thaw, who had been waiting for her in the
